

REALTY SYNDICATE'S PURCHASE OF CONTRA COSTA COMPANY'S PLANT IS A SURPRISE

ROOSEVELT SAYS MAN SHOULD HANG

President Refuses to Interfere With Execution of C. L. Tucker.

BOSTON, June 11.—Governor Guild made public today a telegram received by him from President Roosevelt, in which the president, after pointing out that he had been requested to interfere with the execution of Charles L. Tucker, declares that in his judgment Governor Guild's decision not to interfere with the carrying out of the sentence on Tucker seemed to him entirely sound and commended his hearty sympathy.

Tucker is under sentence of death this week, probably tonight, for the murder of Mabel Page at Weston, March 31, 1904.

ROOSEVELT'S TELEGRAM.
President Roosevelt's telegram follows:

"White House, June 10, 1906.
"Governor Curtis Guild, Boston, Mass.

"Have been requested on behalf of certain parties in Boston to interfere with the execution of Tucker it being alleged that it is my duty so to do, inasmuch as I have the power under the federal laws.

"No showing has been made to me that I have such power, but without regard to this, I desire to state to you that in my judgment your decision not to interfere with the carrying out of the sentence of Tucker seems to me entirely sound and commends my hearty sympathy. It seems particularly a case in which there should be no interference with the carrying out of the sentence.

(Signed) "THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

TUCKER'S NERVE MAINTAINED.
Tucker awoke in the cell at the Charlestown prison today with a realization that his last day on earth had arrived. He continued to demonstrate his remarkable nerve and informed the death watch that he had enjoyed a good night's sleep.

After breakfast the prisoner began preparations to receive the sacrament of baptism. It was for the purpose of administering this rite that Tucker's spiritual adviser, Rev. Thomas Bishop, secured a postponement of the death sentence, Tucker having consented at the last moment to become a member of the Methodist Episcopal church. It is the general belief that Tucker will be sent to the electric chair shortly after midnight tonight.

PROFESSOR HOWISON BROKEN IN HEALTH AND SPIRITS IS IN A SANITARIUM

PROFESSOR GEORGE H. HOWISON.

Distinguished Head of Philosophy Department at University of California May Resign.

BERKELEY, June 11.—Something of a sensation was created on the university campus today when the announcement was made that Professor Henry George H. Howison, the distinguished head of the philosophy department of the university, has broken down, and may soon formally sever his connection with the University of California. Professor Howison is now in the sanitarium at St. Helena, according to information given out at the Faculty club. To what extent his mind is affected, either by age or illness, cannot apparently be learned with any definiteness. His condition has made it necessary that his trip to Yale University be called off.

LONG AND BRILLIANT CAREER.

The long and brilliant career of Professor Howison at the University of California and his exalted position in the world of philosophic thought, make the announcement of his retirement to a sanitarium of especial interest to the university world, and there is little else talked of in Berkeley today, than the reasons or the cause of Professor Howison's retirement.

NONE BETTER KNOWN.

No man in all the faculty of the university is better known or more deeply revered than Professor Howison. His friends among the alumni are legion, and who are now scattered all over the world, in Africa, Europe, South America, Asia and this continent, and who hear the news of the misfortune that has apparently come to the venerable professor, will sorrow with the university community of Berkeley at the news.

LECTURES CANCELED.

Because of Professor Howison's breakdown his trip to Yale University, which was to have taken place this summer, has been canceled. Professor Howison will not go to Yale. He was to have delivered a series of important and interesting addresses at New Haven, dealing with philosophic thought, of which he was an admitted master.

It is deemed no slight honor to be thus called to Yale to instruct the wise men of the East, and the honor was appreciated by all who revere Professor Howison. The University of California was felt to have been distinguished also in the call to Professor Howison.

PROGRAM SPOILED.

OPPOSE THE MAYOR ON GROCERY BARS

S. F. Police Commissioners May Give License Despite Schmitz.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 11.—In liquor circles and among those who are interested in liquor politics there is a rumor current that the Board of Police Commissioners and Mayor Schmitz are not in harmony as to the abolition of the corner grocery with a bar attachment. Inquiries put to the commissioners resulted in each one stating that they were in favor of the suggestion of the mayor, but still those well informed as to the intentions of the administration state that when liquor licenses are again passed out next month that the corner grocer in many cases will be able to obtain a permit to sell liquor.

Mayor Schmitz remains firm in the stand that he has taken, however, and says he will not sanction the continuance of the corner grocery evil.

The grocers themselves are making a vigorous fight to be permitted to sell liquor and groceries at the same time, but the moral forces of the city, which have cried out against the iniquity, are still active in opposing any attempt to have the corner grog shops rehabilitated.

Mayor Schmitz has shown by figures that the city will not be deprived of any revenue if the license is raised to $500 and the corner grocery bar abolished. The high license will have the effect of driving out many, but those who did a prosperous business would be willing to pay the additional revenue.

CRUSHING DEFEAT OF REVOLUTIONISTS

WASHINGTON, June 11.—A crushing defeat to the revolutionists who invaded the country across the Honduras boundary, together with the remainder of those who went across the Salvadoran frontier, was reported to the Guatemalan minister in a cablegram dated today from the minister of foreign affairs. The action, the dispatch further stated, took place at a place called Mongoy.

MINERS RESUMING WORK IN INDIANA

TERRA HAUTE, Ind., June 11.—Fourteen thousand miners resumed work in the bituminous field today.

ACCUSED SAILOR MUST ANSWER FOR LIFE OF WOMAN

SAN FRANCISCO, June 11.—Chris E. Rademacher, mate on a sailing vessel, was arraigned before Police Judge Conlan this morning on a charge of murder, the accusation being that he fired the fatal shots which caused the death of Mrs. Gussie Munro in an Oakland hospital a week ago. The shooting took place in a Barbary Coast dance hall on February 23 last. Jealousy and infatuation are given as the cause of the affair.

DYNAMITE BLAST CAUSE DEATH OF LABORER AT LIVERMORE

Caught in the full force of a dynamite blast at the construction camp of the Western Pacific Company at Midway, near Livermore yesterday, J. Boone, a laborer aged 35 years, met a terrible death, being instantly killed and horribly mangled. The remains were removed to the branch morgue at Livermore, and an inquest will be held to fix the responsibility for Boone's death.

KIDNAPED GIRL'S CLOTHING FOUND IN CLUMP OF BULHES

While playing on the sidewalk near the home of her aunt last night, the little niece of Mrs. John E. Wentworth, residing at 522 Thirty-eighth street, found a bundle wrapped in a newspaper in a clump of geranium bushes near the fence, and when the parcel was opened, it was seen to contain the clothing of three-year-old Genevieve Fuller, the daughter of John S. Fuller, who on June 5 was kidnapped from the home of her parents at 561 Thirty-eighth street.

CURLS ALSO.

Wrapped in a separate piece of paper and enclosed in the same bundle were found the long brown curls of the little tot, which had been cut off by the kidnaper. It is believed that the intention of disguising her, so that she could be taken out of the city without danger of recognition by people who might know her. The mystery of the kidnapping of the little girl, and her subsequent recovery, in the Seventh street depot of the Southern Pacific Company, has been deepened by the finding of the clothing and hair, as there is now no apparent motive for the crime.

It was at first believed that little Genevieve had been kidnapped to be held for ransom by her parents, but that the child stiveler, on learning that her parents were not wealthy, abandoned her at the depot. When it was found that her long curls had been cut off close to her head, it was thought that the sale of the hair might have been the motive of the crime, but

MONEY WILL BE PAID OWNERS IN SHORT TIME

How the Deal Is Looked Upon by Outsiders—William J. Dingee Confirms the Story of Sale—What the Newspapers Have to Say.

The account of the deal by which the control of the Contra Costa Water Company passes from William J. Dingee to the Realty Syndicate, printed in THE SUNDAY TRIBUNE, has naturally been the principal theme of gossip and speculation since it was made public.

The price paid and the policy the new management will adopt are points on which inquiry centers.

It can be stated that the price agreed upon is a round one, being an advance on the valuation placed on the plant by Judge Hart in the famous case between the Water Company and the city in 1900. Judge Hart valued the portion of the plant used in supplying Oakland with water at $7,000,000. The price that is to be paid Mr. Dingee and his associates for their stock holdings, plus the bonded indebtedness, would bring the value of the entire plant up to $11,000,000.

REPORT CONFIRMED.

Mr. Dingee and the attorneys for the Syndicate confirm the report of the sale but decline to give out any details as to terms. A number of small stockholders are not parties to the deal, and whether the new purchasers will offer to take up their stock remains to be seen. No money has been paid down yet and no papers executed, but the agreement reached needs only the ratification of money payment.

WHAT DINGEE SAYS.

Redwood City, June 10.—W. J. Dingee, with reference to the sale of the Contra Costa Water Company to the Realty Syndicate, said today:

"The article in THE TRIBUNE with reference to the sale of the Contra Costa Water Company to the Realty Syndicate is substantially correct and includes the whole subject matter. Some time ago the Syndicate made us an offer for the property and we have accepted. No money has as yet changed hands and no legal obligation has been incurred by us, but morally we felt bound to carry out the deal. Mr. Havens has gone East to secure the money and the transfer will probably be arranged upon his return."

SYNDICATE OFFICIALS RETICENT.

Louis Titus, attorney for the Syndicate Water Company, said: "The sale is, of course, of interest to a great many people, as the transfer of such a water system is far-reaching in its results. The policy of the company for the future has not been outlined to me and I can give no information in that regard. It has always been the idea of my company to provide the best of service to its patrons at the lowest rates, and this policy will without doubt be pursued under the new arrangement."

When the officials of the company return, a better idea of the plans for the future can be obtained. My knowledge of the situation is merely a general one, and though I do not wish to refuse information, I hardly think I am in a position to outline the general policy of the company or state the reasons for the transaction."

WHAT PAPERS SAY.

The San Francisco newspapers devote much space to the sale, evidently regarding it as one of the most important financial operations that has taken place in California for several years.

The Chronicle takes the view that political considerations prompted the syndicate to buy the Contra Costa. It reports "a man familiar with the inside workings of politics" as saying:

A NEW DEAL IN POLITICS.

"The Realty Syndicate has been buffeted from pillar to post politically in the city and county ever since it was formed. Despite the fact that it is the most progressive concern in the county, and is doing mighty things for Oakland and for Alameda county, it has been getting the bad end of every political deal that has been made in the city or county.

"Politics in this city and county is anything but pure, innocent and clean. In plain language, its business is not done on business principles, and no matter how deserving a proposition may be advanced for approval by the city or county boards, it has no show unless the powers that be are ready to approve the measure. The Realty Syndicate may not need political power for offensive purposes, but it does need it, and sorely, for defensive purposes, and unless it can obtain that power its enterprises are liable to attack at any time.

"At present, as for some years past, the big political powers in this county have been the Southern Pacific and the Contra Costa. Naturally, the syndicate could not hope to get control of the Southern Pacific, so it has turned its eyes toward the water company. If it gets the Contra Costa, one of the big considerations for the purchase price will be the transfer of political power, and when the deal is made, or even now that it seems assured, there will be wild scurrying on the part of the politicians who will want to get on the new band wagon."

Whether this "inside" view is the mere surmise of an outsider remains to be seen. However, the Chronicle follows it up with these remarks:

"There is no question that the rumored deal has already sent consternation into political ranks. In both city and county governments the Realty Syndicate numbers many enemies, all of whom are wondering what is to happen. The transfer of the Contra Costa will mean an entire realignment of political ranks, and it is considered certain that a number of politicians and officeholders who have been fighting the syndicate tooth and nail will drop into political oblivion.

"It is argued now, in view of the report of what is to come, that some fights recently waged before the council and the supervisors were really forced, only that a line-up might be compelled and the friends and enemies of the syndicate be forced to align themselves on opposite sides. Whether or not the syndicate officials had anything of this sort in their minds, politicians are unanimously agreed that the fights of the last few months have resulted in practically every officeholder showing his hand as for or against the syndicate, and the corporation is very clearly informed as to who are its friends and who its opponents."

THE SAN PABLO CREEK FIGHT.

The Examiner has this to say:

"It comes as a cessation of hostilities made particularly aggressive on both sides by the newest litigation into which the companies have had to enter—the suits growing out of the syndicate's effort to grab San Pablo creek in Contra Costa county as a supply base in the organization of the new concern, the Syndicate Water Company, 'doing business in Berkeley.' At the first of this year the fight began and for weeks the litigation progressed in the battle to secure control of the supply on the Clancy ranch, in the creek just above the town of San Pablo. This suit, or, to be exact, those suits, or condemnations and the like that were filed, are still pending and until they can be disposed of the deal for the sale of one company to the other cannot be brought to a close.

"When the Realty Company made its stand in the San Pablo creek matter, it was the opinion of the wise ones that it was done

SAN FRANCISCO SUPERVISORS HAVE POWER TO ALTER STREETS

CAPITOL (Sacramento), June 11.—Before noon today the assembly passed assembly constitutional amendment No. 2 relating to the power of the San Francisco supervisors to widen and alter streets. The vote was very close and the measure was carried by changes of a vote from 20 to 21. The final record showed 20 to 1.

COMMISSIONER WOLF TALKS OF INSURANCE

Says Some Companies Endeavor to Avoid Payment; Some People Swear Falsely.

SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.

SACRAMENTO, June 11.—Insurance Commissioner E. Myron Wolf has arrived for the purpose of looking after an appropriation which he asked for a deficit in his office. He was gratified to learn that the Senate had already passed a bill allowing him $3000 for the purposes specified. The same amount will also be allowed in the House.

Mr. Wolf's experience during the last few weeks has been such as to make his life miserable. He has been in consultation with representatives of insurance companies on the one hand and on the other been trying to encourage and reassure people whose property has been destroyed, and whose sustenance depends upon the money they expect to receive from the insurance companies in which they placed their trust.

Regarding the effect upon the insurance companies of the law which has just gone into effect and under which the Commissioner is authorized to demand of insurance companies the numbers of all policies in force in San Francisco on April 17th of this year together with names of the holders and other essential facts connected therewith Mr. Wolf said:

"As you know, I have already acted under that law and issued an order to every insurance company to report to me as the law requires within ten days under penalty of forfeiting their right to do business in this State and a fine of $2000."

EFFECT OF THE LAW.

"This is the first report. Some time ago after receipt of a letter from Governor Pardee I proposed to the companies that they sign a stipulation agreeing to extend the time on the part of persons whose property was destroyed, to file proof of loss for 60 days after June 11th and to waive all notice of loss. You know that people who have damage claims upon insurance companies must file proof of loss within 60 days after the loss has been sustained."

"There are hundreds of people who have been unable to do that, let for a variety of reasons, and if the law condition of the policy should be insisted on, those unfortunate people would lose all their policies cover."

EXTENSION OF LIMIT.

"The stipulation which I proposed to the companies was to extend that limit at least sixty days longer. Some of the companies agreed at once and signed the stipulation. Others said that they wanted time to think it over. Not a few told me that they could not give me an answer until they had consulted their home offices."

SUBTERFUGES.

"I came to the conclusion that a number of these companies were subterfuges and designed with a view to delay. I have, accordingly, made my demand. Ten days elapsed before the sixty-day proof-of-loss filing must take place. Nine days from now these companies will be required to report to me under the law as I have said. Those companies which sign the stipulation before the expiration of the time fixed in my notice will not be troubled. But those who do not will feel its effect."

ANNOYANCE AND VEXATION.

"The manner in which some of these insurance companies are acting is annoying in the extreme. In many cases people have been vexed and harassed in almost incredible situation which the exercise of a little tact would have avoided. It is true of course that there are two sides to the question. The companies are subjected to annoyances and fictitious claims by dishonest and conscienceless claimants."

INSTANCES.

"An instance of that kind came to my attention today in a letter from a man in Oakland. In filing proofs of loss the policyholder swore falsely to a greater sum than the policy called for. The man wrote and said: 'They have got proof on me and now what am I going to do?'"

THE OTHER SIDE.

"I heard of a case on the other side of the question the other day. It was that of a poor woman who was depending upon the money she would get on her policy. She went to the office of the company and, after a long time, she was given a chance to see the agent."

"They took her into what she called a little confession box. They wouldn't talk to her in the presence of a witness. The result of the conference was the defiance of the agent to the effect that the earthquake had destroyed her chimney and that her house had then caught fire and that she had no claim against the company. They wanted her to go away and never to trouble them again."

"After she had been thus treated a fellow approached her outside and told her that she might be able to get sixty or sixty-five per cent and if she was wise she would agree to accept it. That put her in a state of uncertainty making her feel that if she did not take that she would not get anything."

DIFFICULT TO BELIEVE.

"On the other hand, one of the insurance men says they cannot believe what they are told. To do so they would have to take it for granted that every two-room flat was luxuriously furnished with mahogany and marble, that the partry was stocked with cut-glass and the walls were lined with costly bric-a-brac, and that every mechanic owned dress suits, frock coats and silk pajamas."

DECEPTION.

"There is also a wilful deception or at least carelessness regardless of the convenience or feelings of their patrons by some of the companies. I was told that one of the concerns had an office over in Oakland. It put up a notice that it would move to San Francisco and open its office at a certain place where it was announced the office would be opened but neither the company nor its representative put in an appearance although people waited in line for several days."

READ YOUR POLICY.

"There is no doubt that if every man who insures his property should read his policy through carefully and intelligently he would come to the conclusion that the company had the better part of the agreement. The experience in every fire places more conditions in the policy and more restrictions about the payment of loss."

EARLY EARTHQUAKE SUIT.

"Many years ago here in Sacramento, the store of John Breuner was rattled by an earthquake part of it falling to the ground. It was insured but the company refused to pay, because the loss had been occasioned first by the earthquake. The case went to the supreme court which decided that the company was responsible because only a part and not the whole of the building had been destroyed by the quake. At that time the company had in its policy a proviso that it would not hold itself liable for any loss sustained for the destruction of the building by falling down from any other cause save fire. After that decision the company amended its policy by inserting among the conditions the words 'or any part thereof' making the clause read in effect that the company was not liable for loss sustained in the destruction by falling down or from any other cause 'of the building or any part thereof'."

COMPANIES PAYING.

"But there are companies that are paying losses almost without questioning beyond what might ordinarily be expected. I know of a case where a policyholder went to the agent and presented her claim. The agent knew the man had been insured and said: 'The amount of your policy is $2000 and he gave him a check for the amount.'"

"Another case was that of a man who had a policy for $5000. He expressed a willingness to take less than the face value of the policy but the agent wouldn't permit it and handed out a check for the full amount saying: 'That he was entitled to it.'"

"Some of the big companies both for foreign and American are paying dollar for dollar. One of them has two millions here and nearly one million has already been paid. It is only good business policy for an insurance company to deal liberally with its patrons and the companies which are resorting to petty practices and coercing policyholders into accepting discounts are jeopardizing their own business standing for the whole country will be advised of the attitude of every company involved in the great disaster."

PLAY MAKES FRIENDS

Members of Company I Score in Military Drama.

LIVERMORE, June 11.—The first of the two performances of the play, "By the Enemy's Hands" was given in the Sweeney opera house Friday evening before a good sized house. The entertainment was given under the auspices of Company I, N. G. C., and the cast of characters, for the most part, was made up of members of the company, assisted by a few of the most talented young ladies of the town.

The play has been in course of preparation for several months and was first scheduled to take place late in April or early in May, but the fact that Company I was called out for duty in San Francisco immediately following the earthquake necessitated a change of date.

Since the return of the company from its duties in the city, rehearsals have been held nightly and the play has been progressing in fine style. The quality of the performance was fully up to the expectations of the friends of the local company. The play is a stirring military drama, full of action and with plenty of color and a variety of incidents that serve to keep alive the interest from start to finish. Most of the parts called for a display of talent of no mean degree. In order that the character represented might have full justice done to it and in every instance the player was equal to his part.

The cast of characters was as follows:

Colonel Aylsworth, commandant at Fort Clay M. G. Callaghan
Captain Boyd officer E. J. Inman
Lieutenant Parker, officer B. E. Carroll
Corporal Quinby, a red-haired Irishman Newton Armstrong
Dr. Sharp the regimental surgeon De Witt Dutcher
Rev. Pennington, missionary to the Indians Rasmus Hansen
Professor Adolphus Dobbs a doctor with facial disfigurement Victor Star
Lone Star, chief of the Sioux Dr. G. A. Therkoff
Wiffler a follower Clarence W. Beck
Alice Aylsworth, the colonel's daughter Chas. C. Wells
Mrs. Stiggins a temperance reformer Daisy Righter
Sally, an Irish maid with aspirations to be a singer Dolly McKown
Retawale daughter of Lone Star Mrs. Wayne Phillips
Courier Fred Young
Soldier Leo Jucker

The second performance was given Saturday night to a crowded house, and was followed by a dance. The music on both evenings was furnished by the Livermore orchestra.

SCHOOL MATTERS.

W. J. Connell, the principal of Union high school No. 1 is spending his summer in Oakland, where he expects to practice law during his vacation. Mr. Connell was admitted to the bar some years ago and contemplates giving up teaching to engage in the practice of the law some time in the future.

The high school board have re-elected the present corps of teachers for another year. They are as follows: W. J. Connell, principal; Misses Margaret McKeaney, Beatrice Weigle, Beatrice Snow and Elizabeth Wetmore.

AMUSEMENTS.

YE LIBERTY PLAYHOUSE.

So great has been the demand for seats for the Liberty playhouse that the management has been compelled to continue the splendid production for another week, and from present indications it looks as if the play could run indefinitely. The audiences seem to enjoy every moment of the play and many come to see it a second time.

The excellent stock company gathered by Mr. Bishop has never appeared to better advantage than in the comedy drama, "How Baxter Butted In." Matinees are given at Ye Liberty every Saturday and Sunday and seats for the entire week are now ready at the box office.

IDORA PARK.

Tonight the splendid opera company at Idora Park will give a most enjoyable performance of the charming three-act opera, "The Mascot." There is no prettier music in the entire range of light operatic composition than "The Mascot" and with the excellent cast that has been arranged the first chorus of thirty voices and a magnificent orchestra of soloists the performance of the work should be high perfect.

The role of the Mascot will be played by pretty Hope Mayne who possesses every requisite for a comic opera star. Her voice acting ability and style in song and dance make her a charming flamelet and have ample opportunity to display her vocal talents, which are quite a sensation of the city. The costumes will be of particular elegance.

The open air skating rink is attracting enormous crowds and experts pronounce the floor perfect. The skaters are the best that money can purchase and ever attention is given to the comfort of the patrons. The music is excellent and on week day afternoons there will be special programs by the orchestra and musicians of the skating rink band and the Idora opera orchestra. No such music for skating has ever before been provided and crowds will go to Idora the afternoons just to hear the combined bands play. Admission to the park is adults 10 cents and children 5 cents.

LAKESIDE RINK.

The return engagement of Professor C. L. Franks and Baby Lillian which commenced tonight and continues for one week at this popular place of amusement, is looked forward to with great interest as the little queen of the little wheels and her father created quite a sensation on their last visit here. They are acknowledged by all the greatest skaters in America. Their new feature will be skating on stills 2 1/2 feet high a feat accomplished only by them, also the first skate, which has to be seen to be appreciated. The entry list is now open for the six-day race, to begin Monday, June 18, free for all, for a purse offered by the management. Some of the fastest skaters on wheels have already entered.

MOB MAKES ATTACK ON HUNGARIAN MINISTRY

Speech Delivered by the Emperor Is Followed by Trouble on the Part of the People.

VIENNA, June 10.—The reading of Emperor Francis Joseph's speech from the throne today was attended by exciting incidents. After listening to the speech, the delegations proceeded with their respective sittings. Meanwhile the anti-Semite Burgo-master Lueger addressed an enormous meeting of clerical and anti-Semites outside the chamber of the parliament building inveighing against Hungary and denouncing Francis Kossuth, the Hungarian minister of commerce, as a traitor. At the conclusion of the meeting a mob estimated by some to number 20,000 rushed to the Hungarian ministry and there indulged for half an hour in demonstrations of such serious character as to impel the Austrian ministers to the unusual course of apologizing to the Hungarian ministers.

During the demonstration, Dr. Wexler, the Hungarian premier, and Herr Kossuth came to the windows, but were obliged to beat a hasty retreat. The mob, however, redoubled the violence of the demonstrators. It is believed the real active of the anti-Semite leaders was less in opposition to the Hungarians than to universal suffrage, which they believe will strengthen the socialists in parliament at their expense.

In the subsequent debate, Dr. Wexler exonerated the Austrian government officials from any connivance in the demonstration and declined to take any formal action regarding it. The Hungarian delegation unanimously resolved to hoist the Hungarian and Croatian flags over the building during the sessions of the delegations. The emperor took occasion to express his regret that the Hungarian delegation in formal audiences at the Hofburg. Replying to the address of the president of the delegations, the emperor in a speech thanked them for their loyal devotion. The foreign relations of Austria and Hungary, he declared, were entirely friendly. After an expression of deep indignation at the attempted assassination of King Alfonso and Queen Victoria, the emperor continued:

"Our alliance with Germany proves itself to be now as hitherto, by virtue of its defensive and conservative character a valuable guarantee for peace. By the visit Emperor William paid me a few days ago, our intimate and friendly relations again were placed on record, and marked by the same feelings of trust as our relations with our other ally, Italy, with which we find ourselves in gratifying accord on matters affecting us in common."

Referring to Russia and the Balkans, he said that, although the situation in the Balkans showed many defects, it was undoubtedly improved and that above all it had been found possible to avert more serious complications. He expressed satisfaction that peace had been declared by Russia and Japan, "thanks to the unselfish mediation of President Roosevelt," and for the settlement at Algiers of the difficulty between Germany and France over Morocco, "to which our mediatory action contributed not the least part."

"As in the past," the emperor continued, "the preservation of the peace of Europe, above all the maintenance of the status quo, will be the dominant idea of our foreign policy in dealing with international affairs."

Emperor Francis Joseph announced that Austria would be permitted to purchase of arms and war material for the more speedy construction of warships and armament.

SEEK TO OUST SENATOR SMOOT

mon church open and avowed believers in its doctrines and teachings, have been admitted without question to both houses of congress as representatives of the state. The speaker says there remain but two grounds on which the right of Reed Smoot to his seat is contested, and these are:

ENDOWMENT OATH.

"That he is shown to have taken what is spoken of in the record as the 'endowment oath' by which he obligated himself to make his allegiance to the church paramount to his allegiance to the United States; and

"That by reason of his official relation to the church as one of its apostles he is responsible for polygamous cohabitation which yet continues among the Mormons notwithstanding it is prohibited by law."

"As to the endowment oath," it is sufficient in this summary to say that the testimony is collated and analyzed and thereby shown to be limited in amount, vague and indefinite in character and utterly unreliable. The cause of the disreputable and untrustworthy character of the witnesses.

"The witnesses.

"There were but seven witnesses who made any pretense of testifying about any such obligation. One of these was shown by the testimony of two uncontradicted witnesses to be mentally unsound, another, to have committed perjury in the testimony given before the committee on anti-polygamy. The third was shown by the uncontradicted testimony of a number of witnesses to have a bad reputation for truth and veracity and to be thoroughly unreliable. A fourth admitted that he had been for years inebriate and shown by indisputable testimony to have lost his positions on that account and thereupon and for that reason to have withdrawn from the church, and to have assumed such a hostile and reckless attitude as to be generally discredited by him as a reliable witness. The other three witnesses were so indefinite as to their statement that their testimony amounted almost to nothing more than an attempt to state any imperfect and uncertain recollection."

"All of it attempted to show as to the character of this oath is positively contradicted by Reed Smoot and a great number of witnesses whose standing and character, and whose reputation for truth and veracity are unquestioned, except only insofar as they creditably may be affected by the fact that they are or have been members of the Mormon church."

"Upon this state of evidence we are of opinion that no ground has been established on which to predicate a finding or belief that Reed Smoot took an obligation involving hostility to the United States or requiring him to regard his allegiance to the Mormon church as paramount to his allegiance and duty to the United States."

"As to whether Senator Smoot, by virtue of his official relation to the church as one of its apostles, has any responsibility for the continuation of polygamous cohabitation by members of that church, the minority report says:

"It will be found by examination of testimony that he has never at any time, and particularly he has not, since the manifesto of 1890, countenanced or encouraged plural marriages, but that on the contrary he has uniformly upheld the policy of the church as announced by that proclamation, by advocating and exerting his influence to effect a complete discontinuance of such marriages, and within the few instances established by the testimony, where plural marriages and polygamous cohabitation as a result of them have occurred since 1890, have been without any encouragement, countenance or approval whatever on his part."

"As to polygamous cohabitation in consequence of plural marriages entered into before the manifesto of 1890, there is no testimony to show that he has ever done more than silently acquiesce in this offense against law. In view of his important and influential position in the church, this acquiescence might be regarded as inadmissible if it were not for the peculiar circumstances attending the commission of this offense."

"The minority then shows, by a recital of historical fact, instead of countenancing and prohibiting polygamy when it was first proclaimed and practiced, the congress remained silent and did nothing in that behalf. Among the acts cited are the appointment and confirmation of Brigham Young as Governor of the Territory of Utah in 1850, the legislation of 1862, 1863 and 1867, first to restrict and then to prohibit entirely plural marriages and polygamous cohabitation. Then came the Woodruff manifesto of 1890, and the minority says that the fact that the testimony disclosed, there has been few plural marriages since."

PROSECUTIONS.

"It was not alone the fact if further plural marriages were to be contracted polygamy would necessarily in the course of time die out and pass away, but also the fact that Congress, having by the statutes of 1862 and 1867 specifically legitimized the children of the polygamous marriages, it was inconsistent if not unwise and impossible, in the opinion of the majority, to prohibit the father of such children, from living with, supporting, educating and caring for them, but if the father was thus to live with, support, educate and care for the children, it seemed harsh and unreasonable to exclude from that relationship, the mothers of the children."

"After quoting testimony of various witnesses on the subject of prosecutions, the minority in concluding says: 'The conditions in Utah since Reed Smoot became an official of the Mormon church in 1890 have been such that non-Mormons and Mormons alike have acquiesced in polygamous cohabitation on the part of those who married before the manifesto of 1890, as an evil that could be gotten rid of by simply tolerating it until in the natural course of events it shall have passed out of existence.'"

"With this disposition prevailing everywhere in the state of Utah among all classes, Gentiles as well as Mormons, we are of the opinion that there is no just ground for expelling Senator Smoot or for finding him disqualified to hold the seat he occupies because of the fact that he, in common with all the people of his state, has not made war upon, but has acquiesced in a condition for which he had no original responsibility. In doing so, he has only conformed to what non-Mormons, as well as Mormons, have concluded is, under all the circumstances, not only the wisest course to pursue, but probably the only course that promises effective and satisfactory results."

TAKE UP WHAT IS AT HAND

So Says President Jones of Chicago in Yesterday's Sermon.

CHICAGO, June 11.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Urbana, Ill., says: "I do not believe there is an equal number of beautiful lines in the English language which contain more unmitigated nonsense than 'Ingalls' opportunity."

"If you take up each job as you come to it, opportunity will be chasing after you instead of you chasing after opportunity."

"College life cannot escape commercialism."

"Do not be suspicious of your fellow-man."

"Service, not profit, should be your watchword."

"Around such thoughts as those quoted above, President James of the university built his annual baccalaureate sermon to his graduating class, which was delivered yesterday in the armory. President James said, among other things:

"It is not a single opportunity which comes to a man, it is a train. It is a never-ending procession, some small, some large, growing perhaps smaller and more insignificant as the years flow on, but ever and always opportunities too numerous, too great and too large for us to utilize fully."

"It is not opportunity that is lacking. It is lack of power on our part. If job take up each job as it comes, throw yourself into it with your full powers, before long you will be getting ready for the next higher opportunity, before long you will find yourself among the most efficient people of your generation. Opportunity will be chasing you instead of you chasing after opportunity."

HOWISON IN SANITARIUM

Professors C. M. Bakewell, at the head of the philosophy department at Yale, had arranged for the visit of the California thinker. Professor Bakewell was formerly a pupil and an associate of Professor Howison at the university here. He planned to extend honor and hospitality to Professor Howison at Yale this summer, but his plan is all awry.

DISTURBED BY EARTHQUAKE.

It is supposed that Professor Howison was seriously disturbed by the earthquake in April, his age making him, perhaps, more susceptible to the shock. Professor Howison is past three score and ten.

Despite his advanced age, the regents of the university so greatly esteemed Professor Howison that he was not retired when he reached the age limit last year, but has been continued at the head of the department of philosophy, on full pay. He occupies the Mills chair of philosophy, his salary of $4000 yearly being paid from an endowment provided by D. O. Mills, the famous capitalist.

Professor Howison has brought forward the argument of personal idealism in philosophy and is a strong advocate of personal initiative, real self-direction, instead of a belief in an all-predetermining single mind that alone has full agency. The beauty of Professor Howison's style far overcomes the asperity of the subjects he selects.

LESSONS READABLE.

Those to whom metaphysics is repulsive have never found his essays unreadable. Thoughtful men to whom mysteries of our nature have always seemed deserving of profound attention, have studied Professor Howison's books and found therein solution of many intricate problems.

ESSENCE OF THEORY.

The essence of Professor Howison's metaphysical theory is its doctrine concerning the system of causation. It is the constitutive principle of real existence.

AS AN AUTHOR.

In 1844 George Howison received the call to the chair of intellectual and moral philosophy and civil polity at the University of California. As an author of many books on evolution and philosophy he has won world-wide fame. He is considered an authority on idealistic philosophy and is said to be more logical than his predecessors, Hegel, Kant and other philosophers.

CAR HITS DRAY.

Eighty-fourth street No. 106, west-bound, crashed into T. L. L. Dray's dray, and this morning at the corner of Eighth and Harrison streets. A wheel on the truck, which was heavily loaded, and just about the car, came through a pane of glass in the dray, and the car, according to a high rate of speed, struck with the force of a cannon ball, and the dray was crushed. But no serious damage resulted.

simply to force the hand of the Contra Costa Water people, and make them come to terms of sale. The counter suits were filed as though both companies were sincere in the warfare and under this delusion the consumers interested watched the fight with great interest. But while the lawyers tugged at each other in court, the big men of the companies got together and arranged the details of the deal which is no woe to be soon put through."

FINANCIAL DEAL.

The Call treats the matter as a financial deal pure and simple, consummated by capitalists who foresaw the financial disaster that would result from competition and protracted litigation.

It is generally conceded that Mr. Dingee made a good bargain, and retires from the Oakland water field with his laurels as a financial strategist unwhipped. He has encountered many storms, but has passed through them all successfully. Moreover, he has placed the Contra Costa plant in a state of efficiency never before known. The watersheds of the various reservoirs have been rigorously cleaned, and the water purified. Algae, the pest of all impounded waters in this climate, has been entirely banished from Lake Chabot and Lake Temescal. Mr. Dingee has for some time been taking steps to double the supply of the Contra Costa plant. His engineers have been busy for many months with plans for developing new sources of supply and increasing the capacity of Lake Chabot, also for a greater artesian development. All those plans and the data relating to them will now go into the hands of the Realty Syndicate.

POLICEMEN ARE NO RESPECTERS OF HOURS

BERKELEY, June 11.—A Japanese named Hirze rode his bicycle on the sidewalks at a little after twelve o'clock this morning, but not withstanding the earliness of the hour he was caught by the police and arrested for violating the town ordinance regarding riding vehicles on the sidewalks.

The Oriental gave his residence as 1626 Dwight way. He was released on $5 bail.

YACHTS ENTER FOR CUP AT SAN DIEGO

SAN DIEGO, June 11.—A challenge for the Lipton cup, raced for each year under the auspices of the San Diego yacht club, has been filed by the Los Angeles yacht club of Los Angeles. The yachts entered are the Atlantic No. 1, Mitchell No. 2, Monsoon, Sidona and one unnamed.

FOUND CURLS OF LOST GIRL

The finding of the locks has dispelled this theory.

INTENDED FOR PARENTS.

The bundle was apparently left where it was found with the intention that it should reach the parents of the girl, for on the outer wrapper of the bundle was the name of the girl, and the name of the street where she lived. When she found the bundle among the garments, Mrs. Wentworth's niece told her aunt of her discovery, and the latter, in the absence of her husband, called H. Klein, a neighbor of the finding of the bundle, and the latter in turn notified police officer G. D. Powers. After examining the bundle, and discovering its contents, Powers sent the clothing and hair to the city prison, where it was subsequently identified by Fuller as that of his daughter.

NOT THERE LONG.

The police are at a loss to understand the motives of the kidnaper, in stealing and disguising the child, and then abandoning her at the depot, and finally returning the clothing and hair to a spot near the home of the parents. The bundle was evidently placed where it was found only a short time before her recovery, for several children were seen playing among the garments at 8 p. m. before that it was not there, yet it was found at 10 p. m.

WORDS OF PRAISE WELL MERITED

BY A WELL KNOWN ARTICLE.

So much has been written by the standard medical authorities, of all the several schools of practice, in praise of the native, or American, medicinal plants which enter into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, that in attempting to quote from the various works on Materia Medica one hardly knows where to commence, since they are so voluminous that only the briefest and most imperfect reference can be presented in a short article like this.

Briefly then let us say that the "Golden Medical Discovery" was named from the sturdy little plant Golden Seal, the root of which enters largely into its composition. Besides this most valuable ingredient, it contains glyceric extracts of Stone root, Queen's root, Black Cherry bark, Bloodroot and Mandrake root.

Finley Ellingwood, M. D., an eminent practitioner of Chicago and Professor of Materia Medica in the Bennett Medical College, in the city of his residence, recently published work on Therapeutics says of Golden Seal root: "It is the most natural of stimulants to the normal functions of digestion. Its influence upon the mucous surfaces renders it most important in catarrhal gastritis (inflammation of stomach) and gastric (stomach) ulceration."

Many other authorities as well as Dr. Ellingwood extol the Golden Seal root as a remedy for catarrhal diseases of the nasal passages, stomach, bronchia, gall ducts, kidneys, intestines and bladder. Among these, we may mention Prof. John King, M. D., author of the American Dispensatory Prof. J. M. Scudder, M. D., in his "Specific Medication," Dr. Hale of the Hahnemann Medical College of Chicago, Grover Coe, M. D., of New York, in his "Organic Medicine," Dr. Bartholow of Jefferson Medical College and scores of other leading medical writers and teachers.

All the foregoing eminent authorities extol the curative virtues of Golden Seal in cases of stomach, liver and intestinal weakness, torpor and ulceration of bowels. Dr. Ellingwood recommends it most highly. "In those cases of atonic dyspepsia when the entire apparatus, including the liver is stagnant and ineffectual," he says, "it is most highly in the many weaknesses and derangements peculiar to women and says, "It is a most important remedy in many disorders of the womb." Golden Seal root (Hydrastis), is an important ingredient of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak, nervous, "rundown" women.

But to return to the "Golden Medical Discovery" it may be said that its curative properties are not wholly dependent upon Golden Seal, valuable as it is, as other equally potent ingredients add greatly to its value and in fact are not less important than the Hydrastis, or Golden Seal.

In all bronchial, throat, lung and kindred ailments, Stone root Black Cherry bark, Queen's root and Bloodroot, each plays as important a part in effecting a cure as the Golden Seal. "Golden Medical Discovery" as does Golden Seal. All these ingredients have the endorsement of prominent practitioners of all schools of medicine for the cure of diseases of the bronchia, throat and lungs.

Of Queen's root, Prof. King says "An alternative (blood purifier), unexcelled by any other of the known alternatives. Most successful in skin and scrofulous affections, beneficial in bronchial affections, permanently cures bronchitis; relieves irritations, an important cough remedy, coughs of years' standing being cured, aids in blood-making and nutrition and may be taken with out harm for long periods."

Queen's root, Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherry bark and Bloodroot all articles extolled by leading practitioners of all the schools, as the very best of cough medicines, are made especially valuable when combined with chemically pure glycerine which greatly enhances the curative action of all these ingredients in all bronchial, throat and lung affections, severe coughs and kindred ailments.

Who can doubt the efficacy of such a compound, when scientifically made up, as in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery? Who can doubt that it is a most effective remedy for the several diseases for which its ingredients are so highly recommended by the foremost writers on Materia Medica?

It is in the cure of the more chronic or lingering, persistent, and obstinate cases of bronchial, laryngeal and lung affections, attended by hoarseness and severe cough, which if neglected, badly treated would generally have run into consumption, that "Golden Medical Discovery" has won the highest praise from all who have observed its marvelous control over these and kindred ailments. It is no cheap compound made-up of trashy ingredients for free distribution, that curious people may experiment upon themselves as with the many fake nostrums so commonly sent out as "trial bottles." It has a forty year record, embracing many thousands of cures behind it. It is sold at a reasonable price and may be found in all drug and medicine stores in this and many foreign countries.

It will be seen from the above brief extracts how well "Golden Medical Discovery" is adapted for the cure of all blood diseases, as, scrofulous and skin affections eruptions blotches, pimples and kindred ailments, also that it is equally good in all Catarrhal affections no matter where seated, and for all cases of indigestion or dyspepsia torpid liver, or biliousness and as a tonic and invigorator in all manner of weaknesses, and in nervous debility and prostration the above extracts amply show.

Much further information as to the properties and uses of "Golden Medical Discovery" and Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak women, will be found in a little booklet of extracts from standard medical books which will be mailed free to any address on request, by letter or postal card, sent to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

All the several ingredients of Dr. Pierce's medicines will be found, from the reading of this little booklet, to have the strongest possible professional endorsement and recommendations for the cure of all the diseases for which these medicines are recommended. No other medicines for like purposes have any such endorsement. They are non-alcoholic, non-secret, safe and reliable.

PUTER IN JAIL WITH THUGS AND BURGLARS

A. D. PUTER, ARRESTED IN ALAMEDA, NOW IN PORTLAND, OREGON JAIL.

King of the Land Fraud Ring Gets Treatment Given Ordinary Prison Inmates.

PORTLAND, June 11.—Stephen A. D. Puter, king of the Oregon land-fraud ring, the central figure of sensational trials, defendant in numerous federal indictments a fugitive from justice from ocean to ocean and wanted by the authorities of the United States and Oregon alike is at last safe and sound in Multnomah county jail. There among the common criminals that haunt the county jail languishes the man who has made thousands on broad-based swindles and conspiracies against the government, who has operated with men high in office and finance with indictments, a suspended sentence and $25,000 bonds hanging over his head.

When in custody of Deputy United States Marshals A. S. Dingley and J. W. Richards, Puter reached Portland from San Francisco, he was escorted directly to the jail by the California deputies. Charles J. Reed, where after a conference between Mr. Reed and the California officials and a delivery of papers the big land fraud operator was escorted to the jail by the California deputies and Leonard Becker, a deputy in Marshal Reed's office.

Puter attracted but little attention as he walked up Morrison street with the deputy marshals. Since leaving Portland he has shaved off his mustache, and this changes his facial appearance markedly, although he is the same old Puter.

"How do you do Mr. Reed?" said Puter on meeting the United States marshal.

"Hello, Steve," returned Marshal Reed who has known him a long time. "Sit down," and sat down.

PUTER TALKS FREELY
Seated in the marshal's office, Puter chatted freely, but was rather reticent about discussing the inner details of his case.

"There's nothing to say except that I'm here," said the land fraud king. "I don't want to say anything about going to try to get out of my difficulties the best way I can and I have great hopes of getting out all right."

"I don't want to say anything about Secret Service Burns at Boston, did you pull a gun on him in making your escape?" was asked.

"Oh now, I don't want to talk about that. I don't want to say anything about Secret Service Burns. He has made several statements and he probably told what is mostly true."

The papers have printed a whole lot of stuff about what I said at Alameda, and there isn't a word of it true. I never talked to a single reporter while I was in jail there. They printed stuff just as though I had talked to them but I didn't say a word to a newspaper man."

"Have you made any preparations to give bonds?" was asked.

"No, I don't expect to give bonds for a while yet, and don't know of anybody right now who will go bail for me."

CAME WEST TO SEE HENEY.
When asked about the statement attributed to him that he had come west to see Special Prosecutor Henev, Puter said the statement was true.

"What would I have come to San Francisco for if it hadn't been to see him? I tried to arrange a meeting with him, to see what he thought about my case and explain things to him. I had my wife telephone to him but was arrested before he got to the city. I'm sorry to say I didn't see him because San Francisco was burned down. I didn't know where to find him and couldn't telephone."

Puter said he had refused to see Marie Ware-McKinley, and acknowledged the correctness of the story that he had returned her note without opening it.

"There were so many people hanging around there and a host of reporters, whom I didn't want to see, that I couldn't go in to see him," he said.

"Well, I guess I am, I expect to be a witness."

"Is the Mays case?"

"Yes."

"What has become of Mays?"

SAYS MAYS IS "PLAYING CRAZY."
"Oh, he's around Oakland somewhere, playing crazy and making a fool of himself, but didn't speak to him of course. I met him on the street."

Asked where Horace McKinley is, Puter said all he knew was what he had seen in the papers, and they said he was in China.

Puter professes profound ignorance of the charges pending against him, the circuit court for Marion county. When asked about the charges contained in an indictment returned by the Marion county grand jury accusing him of complicity in forging and using false and fraudulent certificates to state school lands, Puter said he knew nothing about it.

He discussed Oregon land-fraud matters, and remarked that there had been great cleaning out. He thought it a good thing to do this once in a while, because people got too corrupt. The present case, he thought, ought to last land-fraud manipulators about twenty years.

CALLS HENEY A "FRIGHT."
He inquired about United States District Attorney Bristol, wanted to know what kind of a man he is, wholly or else sized up with Henev. The latter he said is a fright.

"He's a voice of his has a ring and sting to it," he said.

Puter evinced an interest in the Oregon election. Said he saw Stevens had gotten in by five votes, or something like that. Governor Chamberlain is a mighty popular man, as shown by his vote for reelection.

Referring to land frauds Puter remarked that the future has something in store for C. A. Smith, the Minneapolis lumber millionaire.

"There's something to say about him one of these days," said Puter. "He has been mixed up in frauds in this land and gotten thousands of acres of land."

He got the land before the government got at his case in time to head him off. He got title to the land. He is worth about $100,000. When I was arrested he made some remarks about me but I'll show him up when the proper time comes.

It's time to go up the street now," said Deputy Marshal Becker. "Yes," said Puter, as he picked up his suit case and followed three deputy marshals out of the door and to the county jail.

To be thrown unceremoniously into the Multnomah county jail with degenerates, thugs and murderers and treated exactly as one of them was a bitter pill for proud haughty S. A. D. Puter. Here in Portland he had always been free before, a successful and although in trouble, he never seen the inside of the county jail.

To be searched like a common criminal was a tax on his patience and while Jailer Harry Grafton went through his pockets Puter's face grew dark and sullen. And then came the climax. Well-dressed and with head erect Puter led him to corridor No. 1. The door was unlocked and he was ushered into the little iron cage.

When another lock was sprung and he was with these Henev, Rasmussen, charged with murder in the first degree, Jew Nun, a Chinese, held for murder in the first degree, James Remington, the "Cockney Kid," serving a year for assault John Bell on a statutory charge, Earl Wood, charged with assault, Steve Clemens, Howard and George Foley, incarcerated for larceny.

BEFORE "KANGAROO COURT"
The sight of Puter's good clothes and prosperous appearance aroused the hunger of the Kangaroo Court, a forensic institution maintained by the prisoners with the consent of the county authorities to raise money for tobacco and candles and preserve order.

Forward boys called Prosecuting Attorney Jack Bell of the Kangaroo court as soon as the land fraud king was inside and the heavy iron tumbler had sounded the ominous click that shut Puter from liberty. The court convened and Puter looked the disgust he felt.

"Sit down," commanded the president, and take off your hat. As Puter hesitated, then removed his sky-blue suit.

"This is the Kangaroo court," announced Bell.

"All right, I'm not afraid of a Kangaroo court," remarked Puter.

"Sheriff's Attorney Jack Bell read the rules of the court," and Puter heard that he would be fined $2 or $3 for invading the corridor.

"Two or three dollars," cried Puter.

"Yes," echoed the prosecuting attorney. "What if a fellow hasn't the money?"

"Then you will be expected to pay it to the judge of the court as soon as you get it," explained Prosecutor Bell.

BATH ALSO REQUIRED.
Then the rest of the rules were read, and Puter heard that he was expected to take a bath and do up his hair and change to preserve the sanitary condition of things.

When he had finished Puter smiled and said he guessed he could comply with the rules.

"What's the fine, judge?" asked Prosecutor Bell.

"Three dollars," announced Judge Earl Wood.

"The limit," exclaimed Puter. "Now, look here, I don't want to pay the limit. It isn't fair to impose the limit in my case. I don't care if you make it 24 cents less, just so you don't give me the limit. I'll pay $2.95."

"I'll make the fine $2.95," asserted Judge Wood, and Puter paid the fine.

As long as he is in the county jail Puter will be treated just as other prisoners are. Jailer Grafton said he pronounced the case a joke and that he and looked him up in corridor No. 1, the most desperate criminals are confined.

HE SAYS NO LOVE IS LOST

Bishop Potter Has Little Faith in "Hands Across the Sea."

NEW YORK, June 11.—Bishop and Mrs. Henry C. Potter arrived yesterday on the White Star liner Celtic, after a trip to Great Britain and the continent. On the way up from quarantine the bishop talked of his experiences while abroad. Referring to the relationship between Great Britain and the United States he declared there was no love lost between the two countries. This remark came when he was asked whether the best disclosures had reached Great Britain before he left there. He replied that they had, and with much amusement told of his meeting with representatives there.

"Representatives of the press met me when I arrived in England," he said, "and asked me if I would give them my impression of the insurance scandal. I replied that I would, if they would print it. They agreed to do this, and I said: 'The insurance scandal amounts to this: In the United States we wash our dirty linen in public, but in Great Britain they do it privately.' I looked carefully in the papers, but could not find my statement."

Bishop Potter was then asked if he thought the friendly relations existing between the two countries were superficial. He replied:

"Yes. It is gush. Prosperity, you know, is not conducive to friendly relations."

"Is it true that in Great Britain they think the Americans are grafters?" was asked.

"The more acute thinkers," he replied, "do not think we are grafters, but that we are easily tempted by graft."

Visiting Egypt, the bishop said he went up the Nile to the first cataract and in describing the change that had come over the country in the thirty years since his last visit, quoted Lord Cromer, who had remarked to him: "You can change the face of the land by canals, railroads and irrigation, and you can lift the physical condition of the people by introducing a better government and good hospitals, but you cannot change the mind of the oriental in a quarter of a century."

The bishop added: "This is a fact which we must recognize in all our dealings with the oriental."

While abroad, Dr. Potter, as bishop of the American Episcopal churches in Europe, visited many American Episcopal churches in Florence, Milan, Munich, Dresden, Geneva, and Paris. He spent the winter in Egypt. In the three weeks which he spent in England, he said, he made some interesting discoveries concerning the ancestry of George Washington and Laurence Washington. He said the Washington coat of arms was not stolen from a manor house at Selgrave nor Northampton, but was taken from an entablature in a church in Wiltshire, sold to an American and taken to Southampton.

"It has been recovered," he added, "and I am now having it mounted in the wall of Garrison church."

When asked about his remark at the London Pilgrim club that the American eagle had its tail between its legs in the streets of Cairo, Bishop Potter said: "I had reference to the advertising of certain specias in Cairo in which the American flag was used."

BERKELEY WOMAN DROPS DEAD

BERKELEY, June 11.—Mary E. Edgar of 2014 Eighth street West Berkeley suddenly dropped dead yesterday morning at 7 o'clock. Mrs. Edgar, who is the wife of Archibald Edgar, a fireman connected with the Regent street firehouse, has been complaining for several days of pains in her chest.

Upon arising yesterday morning she complained of a cold in her lungs. She took but a few steps in her mother's bedroom before she fell over dead. As no doctor was in attendance the body of the young woman was removed to the morgue. The deceased leaves a little son four years old.

CHIEF OF POLICE IS KILLED

More Trouble Breaks Out in Cities in Russia.

BIELOSTOK, Russia, June 11.—Chief of Police Dirkschhoff against whose life several attempts had been made was shot and killed yesterday by several unknown persons while he was out driving. His coachman was severely wounded. At the same time the secret police were attacked in another portion of the town one of them being wounded.

WARSAW, June 11.—Six men were killed in a riot here yesterday. The disturbances are reported to have been organized to avenge the workman Marczaski, who was executed in the citadel Saturday morning for attempting to kill a police officer.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 11.—In spite of the official denial that the retirement of the Gorenkin ministry is near at hand was reasserted today by the Reich the Constitutional Democratic organ which apparently is looking forward hopefully to the installation of a cabinet more in harmony with the lower house in parliament.

This hope apparently springs from the belief that the ministry is about to go to smash through internal dissensions over the agrarian program of Minister Stuchinsky, concerning which there has been much gossip. Members of the cabinet however assert that serious discord has not manifested itself.

The project of M. Stuchinsky has not yet been submitted to the ministry in toto and preliminary discussion of it realized no strong current against it. The Liberal organs also give credit to a report that the emperor in deference to the sentiment of the lower house has decided to suspend executions pending the enactment of a law abolishing them, but the rumor finds answer in the dispatches from Warsaw where one man was hanged Saturday for an attack on a policeman and four have been condemned to death for sacking the township treasury and from Riga, where a court martial of thirty-six members of the fighting band of revolutionists has condemned sixteen to death, among them being the Baltic thrives, as "Napoleon," and twenty to imprisonment from three to fifteen years.

FIGHTS TO REGAIN FREEDOM

Prisoner Makes a Desperate Attempt to Escape From Police.

Thomas Schilling arrested by Patrolman Ahern Saturday night on a charge of drunkenness made a spectacular attempt to escape from the patrol wagon shortly before midnight and only the quickness of Policeman Harry Caldwell the wagon officer, prevented him from getting away.

Schilling in company with four other prisoners was being taken from the Sixth street lockup to the Central police station. When near the corner of Fourteenth and Clay streets he sprang past Officer Caldwell and leaping from the wagon took to his heels.

Caldwell jumped to the ground and gave chase to the fleeing man overtaking him at the corner of Fourteenth and Clay streets. His shout to Schilling to stop attracted the attention of night Captain Lynch and Sergeant Henderson who were in the station and they went to Caldwell's assistance on the run.

"Catching the scene in time to add to the capture of Schilling and to prevent the escape of the other prisoners."

Schilling was by far the worst of the lot for when first arrested by Ahern he made a vicious attack on the officer, who was forced to use his club to subdue him.

Schilling was taken to the receiving hospital for repairs and was then locked up in the Sixth street lockup where he promptly attempted to administer a beating to the other four prisoners in the cell. The timely arrival of the patrol wagon prevented a bloody battle, and then followed Schilling's attempt to escape.

PHOENIX WIN IN LAST GAME

The Phoenix baseball team of St. Mary's college wound up the season yesterday at Petaluma in a game for the first of St. Vincent's Orphanage fund. The Phoenix won the game by a score of 10 to 1. The Imperials, who were the opponents of the Phoenix, were defeated by the Phoenix in a game played at Petaluma. The Phoenix team was composed of the following players: ...

TEAM OWNERS MEET FOR MUTUAL GOOD

NEW YORK June 11—The fifth annual convention of the Team Owners' association of America will begin this afternoon at the Hotel Cadillac and last for three days. This association is a national organization of team owners' associations in the large cities of the United States. Delegates will be in attendance from such far distant points as San Francisco, Seattle, Houston and Kansas City. The president of the association is Henry C. Knight of St. Louis. Henry C. Moore of Philadelphia is first vice-president, and John Wilken of this city second vice-president. The object of the association is to affiliate the team owners of the country with a view to improving the conditions under which the business is conducted.

STOP SUNDAY BALL IN N. Y.

NEW YORK June 11—There were neither professional nor semi-professional baseball games played in Greater New York yesterday. Police Commissioner Bingham issued instructions to his subordinates during the week that they should prevent the playing of all Sunday baseball games where admission was charged either directly or by subterfuge. Last week the national league executive transferred several of the Brooklyn club games from the regular schedule to Sunday dates. This change arranged for a game between the Chicago and Brooklyn teams at Washington park Brooklyn yesterday, but this game was called off at a late hour Saturday night.

LOCALS LOSE IN STATE LEAGUE

SAN JOSE June 11—San Jose won a game from Oakland yesterday. The chief features of which were the many errors made by both sides. Score: San Jose 6, Oakland 3. Batteries—Emerson and Kent Peterson and Robinson.

TWO GAMES. STOCKTON June 11—Stockton won the first of a doubleheader today and tied the second which was called at the end of the seventh inning per agreement. The feature was Ingalls drive into right field in the eighth inning of the first game with the bases full scoring three runs but himself being called out for cutting first base. Scores: First game—Stockton 4, Oakland 2. Batteries—Ingalls and Conrad, Robinson and D. Bodie. Second game—Stockton 2, Oakland 4. Batteries—Moley and Conrad, Bodie and D. Bodie. Umpire—Conway.

FIVE YACHTS TO BE IN RACE

SAN FRANCISCO June 11—Five boats from the South Coast Yacht club of Los Angeles will contest for the Lipton cup in this year's races. A dispatch has been received from Commodore H. H. Sinclair of the South Coast club in which he challenged for the trophy on behalf of the Mischief I. Mischief II, Monsoon Skidoo and a boat not yet named. The challenge was addressed to Commodore Alonzo Jessop of the San Diego Yacht club and will be taken up at the next meeting of the club. But for the San Francisco disaster it is probable that one or more boats would have been entered from that city as the northern yachtsmen had announced their intention of competing. One yacht will be in the races from San Diego the Defender that is being built by the San Diego Yacht club and which it is expected will be launched about July 1. The races for the Lipton cup will be held on August 7, 8 and 9.

SEALS TAKE MEASURE OF OAKS IN TWO GAMES

Oakland lost twice yesterday. Loose playing and hard luck at critical stages contributed to Oakland's downfall. The morning game ended with the score 7 to 1 in favor of the Seals. The afternoon match was a bit closer the final tally being 6 to 2.

The slowness of the Commuters was especially noticeable in the first contest, which was played before a good sized crowd of enthusiasts. Spencer probably did the best all around playing, scoring a three base hit, a two base hit and figuring with Williams in the only double play of the game. Every seat was taken at the afternoon game and in some parts of the bleachers standing room was at a premium. At least 5000 people took advantage of the beautiful afternoon and watched the two teams fight it out on the diamond. The Commuters tried out Kennedy for the first time at second and the youngster made a good showing for his initial appearance. He figured in five putouts and three assists. Kennedy will probably become a fixture on the team.

MOHLER BUSY. In the second half of the fourth inning Mohler started with a two-base hit to left field which fell just inside the time line. He stole third and died there. In the first half of the fifth it seemed Oakland would score when Hackett lined a long double sacker into the central garden. Devereaux followed with a sacrifice hit that put Hackett on third. Reidy's easy infield out ended Oakland's chances for ringing the gong. Wilson with a drive to center in the fifth frame brought the San Francisco supporters to their feet. He went to second on Hitt's sacrifice and came home on Spencer's drive.

The second half of the seventh was an exciting battle. Wilson was hit by Reidy. Hitt singled and Spencer filled the bases with a long drive to center. Wheeler's hit into left brought Wilson home. Spencer followed on Wheeler's drive, which forced Hitt out. Graham's double play with Bliss shut out a possible two-run play for the San Francisco. At the beginning of the eighth inning it seemed the Commuters would not get the opportunity to rally. In fact when Graham came in on the forced run the crowd took it as a matter of fact that the Oakland team had ended the scoring for the day. The local fans went wild with delight later in the inning when Kruger came in on a hit by Bliss. Householder, Williams and Hitt went out in one two three order in the last half of the inning. Oakland failed to tally in the opening of the ninth and the game ended.

The same teams play every afternoon this week at 8:30 o'clock. BASEBALL IN THE COAST CITIES

PORTLAND, Or. June 11—Henderson's home run in the ninth inning won the game for Portland from Los Angeles yesterday. Both pitchers up to this time had kept the hits so scattered as to be generally ineffective. A feature of the game was Donohue's work behind the bat. During the day he bagged four-four hits each after a long run score.

SEATTLE Wash June 11—Seattle and Fresno pulled off a double header yesterday before 3500 people. Seattle won the first 1 to 0 and Fresno took the second 1 to 0. Both games were good exhibitions of the national game. Scores: First game—Seattle 1, Fresno 0. Batteries—C. Hall and Hansen, Lemapke and Hogan. Second game—Seattle 1, Fresno 0. Batteries—Jores and Hansen, Herman and Fitzgerald.

OCEAN YACHT RACE IS BEGUN

SAN PEDRO, Cal. June 11—Three crack ocean racers started at noon today on the first trans-Pacific yacht race ever sailed under the auspices of the South Coast Yacht club of San Pedro.

The weather is fine and there is promise of good sailing breezes for the contest. The entries for the big event are La Paloma, defender for the Hawaiian Yacht club, the Anemone of the New York Yacht club, which also sails under the colors of the Southeast Yacht club of this city, and the Lurline of the South Coast Yacht club.

La Paloma, which arrived only Saturday from San Francisco, has been put in condition and will be under the command of Commodore C. W. McFarland of the Hawaiian Yacht club. She is schooner-rigged and has a length of only forty-seven feet, but showed her ability to make fast time across the Pacific in her recent trip to San Francisco when she won over the F. C. Allen by making the distance of 2882 miles in twenty-nine days. She is backed heavily by the islanders.

The Lurline is sailed by Commodore Sinclair of the South Coast Yacht club, and is also schooner-rigged and has a length of ninety-one feet. Her backing is principally along the Pacific Coast.

The Anemone is the largest yacht of the three, having a length of one hundred and twelve feet. She is ketch-rigged and is sailed by Captain Lindsbury, accompanied by his owner, G. L. Tutt of Colorado Springs. She is backed by easterners.

The start of the race across the Pacific was accompanied by several yachts of the South Coast Yacht club, which will stay with the course of the racers for thirty miles then return around Santa Catalina Island and thence back to the point of starting.

Commodore Macfarlane of La Paloma appreciates that the odds are against him, his yacht being the smallest of the four. He is, however, banking on his luck. If the leading yachts reach the islands at night they will have to keep off shore until daylight, so as to clear a number of dangerous reefs. In fact, there are several passages that can be taken that will be to the advantage of the yacht which is sailed by those that are familiar with the waters.

On the arrival of the yachts at the islands there will be several races around the local courses.

STRIKERS FIRE ON WATCHMEN

Fifty Shots Aimed at Coal Company's Building but None Is Hurt.

DELLONVALE, Ohio, June 11—An attack, presumably by strikers, was made early today on the check house of the M. A. Hanna Coal Company at Dellonvale when fifty shots were fired from a hill 200 feet distant. There were four watchmen in the building, but no one was injured.

Officials of the company who were holding a conference with Mayor Eberle at the time of the attack, organized a party and went to the mine to protect their property. Not a shot was fired by the company men.

FORMER JUDGE OF FEDERAL COURT DIES

CHICAGO, June 11—Former Judge George W. Brown recently one of the council on the trial of the packers in the Federal court, died last night of a complication of diseases. He served two terms as county judge in Du Page county, two terms as circuit judge and was appointed justice of the appellate courts of the second and third districts by the supreme court. He served as chief justice of both courts.

Oakland Tribune

W. E. DARGIE, President.

Business Office and Publishing House, 413-417 Eighth St., Oakland.

Appreciation of the Sunday Tribune

THE SUNDAY TRIBUNE has established its right to remain in the field as a permanent newspaper feature. It has, in fact, won popular recognition beyond the most sanguine expectation of its publisher. The many special features it contains have commended it to public favor, and these have not interfered in any sense with the presentation of the world's news of the day, in the fullest and most attractive form.

The value of THE SUNDAY TRIBUNE as an exceptional advertising medium to business men and others is evidenced in the extraordinary patronage it is receiving. Yesterday's SUNDAY TRIBUNE, for example, contained seven solid pages of classified advertisements, in addition to the large volume of business advertisements specially displayed. The paper has been uniformly well received outside of Oakland, as well as among our own people, and we appreciate the hearty commendations which our interior contemporaries have given it. THE SUNDAY TRIBUNE is evidently filling the place which it was designed to occupy, quite satisfactorily.

Source of Fire Insurance Troubles.

It is not difficult to trace the troubles of San Francisco policyholders with the fire insurance companies, and the delays of these corporations in redeeming their obligations, to their true source. The latter is to be found unquestionably in the policy of reinsuring risks. This policy has been adopted by all fire insurance companies—the strongest and soundest as well as the weakest. Indeed, it is doubtful whether many of the weaker companies could have ever obtained a foothold in any field if it had not been for the practice followed by the stronger companies of subdividing among the smaller companies the large risks which they have underwritten within any given territory. The upshot of the practice is this: When a conflagration occurs in any locality where large fire insurance risks are involved there is always a lot of time spent in the adjustment of the losses, not between the insurance company issuing a policy and the insured, but between that company and those corporations in which portions of the policy were placed through reinsurance. These negotiations always constitute a season of suspense and doubt to the insured and are not infrequently used for the purpose of discounting a settlement.

This is the process which is largely embarrassing the insurance situation in San Francisco today. The soundest fire insurance companies find themselves entangled on all sides by the reinsurance of policies. In many cases where the original insurance was placed, the company doing the underwriting has ample surplus to cover all of its obligations; but before making its settlement with the insured it finds itself hampered in the adjustment of the loss with the company carrying the reinsurance. In many of these cases of adjustment, the surplus of the company in which the risk has been reinsured has been seriously impaired or possibly wiped out, and its agents proceed at once to spar for a discounting of the claim. Meantime, the insured, who is demanding the redemption of his policy, is held up to assume either the whole or at least a share of the loss which the company in which he insured is bound to suffer through reinsurance. The process is in active operation at present.

Sound companies have been guilty of reinsuring in companies which they had good reason to believe, if not actually, to know, were not solvent, taking their chances, however, in the division of risks taken in territory in which their agents exceeded the limit of insurance which they were authorized to carry. Under ordinary circumstances, the perils to policyholders growing out of reinsurance would probably not be in evidence; but, in a great conflagration, like that which swept San Francisco, they come conspicuously to the front and are responsible largely for the delays in settlements and the strenuous efforts which are being made to discount claims. Evidently, the reinsurance of fire risks by fire insurance companies is a legitimate subject of legislative control and it may possibly be necessary to prohibit it in toto for the proper protection of policyholders.

Senator Clark has returned to Montana and his constituents can now put the sincerity of his announced intention not to be a candidate for reelection to the touch.

This is a rather sure rule: If a man has accumulated money he is smart.

HERE AND THERE

To be over yonder where fresh from the grasses
The fragrance blows softly o'er dew-laden hills,
To catch the quick word of the wind as it passes
And hear the low answer from murmuring rills,
To feel the salt kiss of the neighboring ocean,
To thrill to each pleasure that Nature can give,
Ah, that is the acme of human emotion,
Ah, that is to live.

To know that the herald of day is o'erflashing
With pennons of crimson the sky in the east,
That every soft cloud in the heaven is blushing
Like cheeks of a maid from a lover's least,
To cage up the heart in a smoke-begirt city
And strive, ever vainly, to stifle its cry,
Ah, that is misfortune deserving of pity,
Ah, that is to die.

—Mabel Porter Pitts in Sunset Magazine.

Development of Oakland Harbor.

There never has been a time in the history of Oakland harbor when greater need existed for uniformity of action on the part of all interests concerned to hasten the development of the improvements in progress for the benefit of commerce. Circumstances, unforeseen and unexpected, occurred through the calamity which visited San Francisco that are forcing commerce to seek the eastern shores of the bay for its accommodation. Oakland harbor is, fortunately, able to accommodate a large portion of it, as it is, but it is essential that the improvements now under way, and many more of equal importance besides, shall be vigorously pushed before the prospective demands of commerce are fully met.

It is manifestly the duty, therefore, of all individuals and corporations interested, in the inner harbor especially, to join hands in the endeavor to provide increased facilities along its water front for the use of shipping. We want more wharves and docks, at which deep sea going ships can load and discharge cargoes. And the time is right at hand when we must provide dockage facilities for the largest deep sea ships afloat. For this purpose we need the immediate co-operation of the Federal Government, which has been for thirty-three years engaged spasmodically, in deepening the channel to the harbor. The contracts which are now being carried out provide for a depth of twenty-five feet to the Webster street bridge. The time has come, however, when Congress should provide for the deepening of this channel to thirty feet and carrying it well up toward Brooklyn basin, and that without unnecessary delay. San Francisco's wharf and dockage facilities have been temporarily crippled by the great disaster; hence there is a greater necessity for hastening the completion of harbor improvements on this side, and the beginning of others on an even larger scale. We can not afford to put the oriental trade in jeopardy pending the rehabilitation of San Francisco. It is evidently Oakland's mission today to take care of that commerce largely until San Francisco is on her feet again.

SOME TYPICAL LIMERICKS.

Said the burglar, "I'm taking no chance,
My victim I rob of his pants.
The man can't pursue;
He'll be pinched if he do;
I've read up on frenzied finance."

An extremely unspeakable Turk
In Constantinople got work.
As chief of police
He keeps all the peace;
You see his name is O'Rourke.

An alderman named Mike McGuire
Met Jones, an inveterate gayer.
Said Jones, amid laughter,
"Say, Mike; you're a grafter!"
Mike got mad and said, "You're a—Senator!"

On a rising young statesman named Folk
Fate played an abominable jolk,
Saying, "In nineteen eight
You'll be candidate—"
And just then the poor man awolk!

Runs the saw, "Oil and water won't mix."
We've believed it until nineteen six,
But Baptist John D.,
He smiles, and sez he,
"In most every trade there is trix!"

A muck-rake man in his wrath
Saw an octopus crossing his path.
Said the man, "What tough luck!
This cuss in the muck
Takes a legal immunity bath!"
—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

SOME PASSING JESTS.

The Senator—I hear that you said the speech I made yesterday was the worst I ever delivered.
The Friend—I did not say that.
The Senator—Ah, I'm glad of that. Er—what did you say?
The Friend—I said it was the worst speech anybody ever delivered.—Philadelphia Press.

Mrs. Jawback—Doctor, I've been feeling very ill today.
Dr. Sokeham—Let me see your tongue—put it out as far as you can.

Mr. Jawback—Say, Doc, there's not room for that here. Better take her out in the yard.—Cleveland Leader.

Confidential Friend—How do you manage to hold your job in spite of the notorious irregularities in the management of your office?
Political Heeler—They can't investigate my case without exposing a chap that's higher up.—Chicago Tribune.

A PRESS TRIUMPH OF THE COAST.

THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE, one of the complete, capable and creditable of the great dailies of California, issued its initial Sunday edition on the 3d. A due regard for truth impels this paper to state that THE TRIBUNE of that date was easily one of the press triumphs of this coast—but that is nothing unusual with THE TRIBUNE.—Santa Maria Graphic.

Colonel Mayers Wins Again

POPULAR HOTEL PROPRIETOR SHOWS CLEVERNESS.

There are few hotel managers that have battled with obstructions of all nature in the matter of operating a first-class hotel, and come off more victoriously than Colonel Henry Mayers, the genial proprietor of the Arlington Hotel, corner Ninth and Washington streets.

When Colonel Mayers took control of the Arlington about two years ago, there were manifold changes to be made and much money was required to renovate and put in a presentable form the famous old hostelry. Not only has this been done, but more space has been added from time to time, until today over 100 rooms are under the supervision of his vigilant eye.

The latest important innovation is the control of the Arlington Grill, which passed under his control this week. Since the earthquake the entire building has been renovated, and the grill is tastefully decorated and refitted. In contradiction to the policy previously adopted by those operating the Arlington grill, Colonel Mayers has discharged the celestial cooks and kitchen help, and has now, the best white help.

Mr. Morrison, famous caterer at the Rialto House for years, personally supervised the grill, and is giving the most for the money of any place in the state, in fact, prices are lower than before the earthquake.

The Sunday dinners are especially desirable, and the public will heartily appreciate the efforts of Colonel Mayers to give the public a good service.

WITTE EXPECTS CONFLICT SOON

Sorry Russia Failed to Take
Chance to Appease Parliament

ST. PETERSBURG, June 11.—A private letter received here from Count Witte is couched in a very pessimistic tone. He believes that the Russian government, in throwing away its chance of appeasing parliament, rendered certain a conflict within a brief period. Count Witte left Russia May 29 for Brussels, whence he was to go to Germany.

MOHAWK COUNCIL ENTERTAINS MEMBERS

BERKELEY, June 11.—Mohawk council No. 76 met in regular session in their wigwam, at Odd Fellows' hall, Saturday night. Election of officers was the order of business for the evening and, after a spirited contest, the following members were elected:

Peacemakers, Miss Nellie Creed, Jeannette, Mrs. Della Gilbert; Powhattan, Nat. Neely, prophetess; Mrs. Alice Germain, keeper of records; Mrs. Elizabeth Creed, collector of wampum; Miss Annie Begley, keeper of wampum; Miss Adele Bender.

The "raising of the chiefs" is scheduled for the next gathering, and is to be followed by a social in which members of the various local tribes will join.

A Texas Wonder.
There's a Hill at Bowie, Tex., that's twice as big as last year. This wonder is W. L. Hill, who from a weight of 90 pounds has grown to over 180. He says: "I suffered with a terrible cough, and doctors gave me up to die of consumption. I was reduced to 50 pounds when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Now, after taking twelve bottles, I have more than doubled in weight and am completely cured. Only sure cough and cold cure. Guaranteed by Osgood Bros. drugstore, corner Seventh and Broadway and Twelfth and Washington streets, $10 and $1.00. Trial bottle free."

Piedmont Baths.

A JUNE PARTY.

Miss Myrtle Beckert entertained a number of her friends Friday evening, June 1, at her residence on Oak street. The evening was pleasantly spent and after games, prizes were awarded to Luella Alexander and Marion Hawkins. Refreshments were served in the large dining room, which was decorated in red. Those present were Mildred Sellers, Marion and Hazel Hawkins, Elizabeth Hogan, Marion Pelton, Josephine Bird, Myra Harber, Blanch Hart, Luella Alexander, Ellenor Hogan, Pauline Storer, Gladys O'Brien, Frank Kennedy, Gustave Beckert, Edwin Olson, Thomas Hogan, Paul Barrett, Mauritz Olson, Herbert Beckert, Frank Connor, Ed Barrett, James Martin, Elmer Harber, Granville Martin, Carl Hohman, Earle Borton and the hostess.

WHIST CLUB.

Mrs. H. G. Plummer was hostess today at an enjoyable reunion of the Good Cheer Whist club. Many of these card enthusiasts have been busy in relief work and the hour at cards today was a recreation after several weeks of sustained effort toward the relief of refugees.

IN NEW YORK.

The following Californians are in New York:

From Los Angeles—E. Hustwick, at the Everett; G. Young, at the Imperial; J. Scott and wife, at the Marlborough; H. Wilson, at the Imperial.

From Oakland—R. N. Mollerich and Mrs. L. A. Mollerich, at the Imperial.

CHILDREN'S PARTY.

Miss Belinda Stanton a few days since entertained some of her young friends by inviting them out for the day to the home of her grandfather, H. V. Mosen, who has a large farm near Hayward. An entire day was spent in a very pleasant manner by the party. The day was devoted to the playing of games, riding about the farm and the refreshments served, under the able supervision of Miss Stanton, out in the open in the large Mosen orchard. Prizes were awarded to the winners of the egg race. The winners were Miss Beth Hoyt and Ross English.

Those enjoying the day were: Misses Florence Bruce, Hazel Fossing, Gladys Voice, Edith Orth, Grace Vesper, Thoda Eckroft, Beth Hoyt, Etha Musser, Alleen Corwin, Dorothy Barton, Ethel Davis, Belinda Stanton and John Clark, Harry Ismon, Curtis Barbour, Ross English, Thomas Miller, Edward Chamberlain, Easton Kent and Bedford Boyes.

SUCCESS OF FETE.

Through the noble endeavors of Oakland's society maids and matrons, the Fabiola hospital today counts $2000 more in its treasury. The remarkable success of the fete given for the benefit of Fabiola spoke eloquently of the efforts made by Mrs. John Yule and her capable assistants. Owing to care given to the refugees, Fabiola was over $2000 in arrears, and had to depend on the pretty matrons and maidens who put their dainty heads together and solved the problem by arranging the most successful fete of the year. Mrs. John Yule, president of the Fabiola board, expressed her gratitude and pleasure. She said:

"Every woman connected with the fete was so very kind and so very active in the interests of the benefit fete that we can only express our grateful appreciation to all. We cleared over $1600 as near as we can learn from our treasurer, Mrs. Q. A. Chase, and while this will not quite lift the amount which the hospital is in arrears because of the refugee patients cared for, it will relieve the immediate necessity.

"The fete was the best I have witnessed in this city. Every one had a good time and contributed liberally to the proceeds. We want to thank all the women that helped to make it a success and all who came and contributed to the affair."

The amount of the receipts at the fete surprised those who managed it. "It was a great tribute and a just one to the loveliness of our women," said one matron. Oakland's most beautiful women were instrumental in the success of the fete, and few can deny that their beauty was the large drawing card of the day.

GIVEN UP TRIP.

Miss Alice Footman and her mother have returned to Alameda from their interrupted European trip. They left in November and were in Paris when the news reached them. They gave up their proposed trip to London and returned at once.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Little Ruth Eppinger entertained a group of her young friends at a birthday party Saturday afternoon at her home at 334 Twenty-fourth street, in honor of her tenth natal day. Games, etc., made the afternoon merry and the indispensable good things to eat were of course also in evidence. At the close of the afternoon the entire party adjourned to the Piedmont skating rink, where the little ones enjoyed a whirl on the rollers.

Those who partook of the enjoyment were: Lizzy Schultz, Ruth Eppinger, Edgar Dow, Vernon McDonald, Mildred Stegman, Earl Steinberger, Vera Jackson, Herwood Nickel, Bertram Agnew, Betsy Dolliver, Carrie Dolliver, Donald Stegman, Oscar Price, Zora Niehaus and Louise Hempel.

JULY CELEBRATION.

An open letter has been issued to the musical public of Oakland by the literary committee of the general Fourth of July committee, asking those who are willing to sing in the Fourth of July chorus to attend a rehearsal to be held next Tuesday evening, in the lecture room of the First Presbyterian church at the corner of Fourteenth and

ALL ORDERS FOR OUR COUNTRY TRADE WILL BE SHIPPED FROM OUR OAKLAND WAREHOUSE ON THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC TRACK, CORNER 16TH AND WOOD STREETS, OAKLAND. COUNTRY CUSTOMERS WILL AVOID ANY DELAY IN EXECUTING THEIR ORDERS IF THEY WILL ADDRESS THEIR MAIL AS ABOVE.

NEW GOODS ARRIVING DAILY. WE ARE IN RECEIPT OF COCHRAN & CO.'S GINGER ALE, DISTILLERS' CO., LTD., SCOTCH WHISKIES, ALL THE PROMINENT MINERAL WATERS OF THE LOCAL AND FOREIGN MARKETS, A FINE LINE OF HAVANA AND KEY WEST CIGARS, TODD'S VIRGINIA HAMS AND LAZERAN SARDINES.

OUR STOCK IS RAPIDLY FILLING UP AND IN A VERY SHORT TIME WE WILL BE IN A POSITION TO FILL ANY AND ALL ORDERS AS RECEIVED. FOR THE PRESENT SOME ORDERS WILL HAVE TO BE FILLED SHORT OF SOME ITEMS.

Large Shipment of Fine Coffees & New Season's Teas Just Received

We've always been proud of being leaders for supplying the finest in the coffee and tea line and we are pleased to announce the arrival of a choice lot of teas and coffees. This is what we received:

200 bags Fancy Old Ankola Java Coffee, the finest coffee on earth.
75 bales Pure Mocha Coffee.
150 bags Old Bogota Coffee.
150 bags Fancy Kona Coffee.
100 bags Guatemala Coffee.

These coffees are roasted and ground on our own premises and are FRESH EVERY HOUR. When buying coffee this means much to you, as coffee that is several days old will not have the flavor and aroma of that which is FRESH.

The new season's teas have just come in. The Bee Brand Ceylon Tea, which is such a favorite with most of our particular patrons, is here, and its delicacy of flavor cannot be surpassed. Our Japan teas are also here. These teas are the early leaf pickings and are the choicest of the season.

Arrival of Hermitage Ryes and Old Crow Bourbons

The Hermitage Rye and Old Crow Bourbon Whiskies are known all over the country for their quality and there are few whiskies that are as celebrated for their mellow and well-aged flavor.

We announce the arrival of 29 bbls. Hermitage Rye Whisky 13 years old

8 bbls. Old Crow Whisky 16 years old
10 bbls. Old Crow Whisky 13 years old
10 bbls. Old Crow Whisky 12 years old and plenty of younger goods.

Orders may be addressed to our Van Ness Ave. store, San Francisco, after July 1st, as most of our shipping will be done from there.

We never were in a better position to serve the local and shipping wants of our friends and customers. SERVICE, QUALITY OF GOODS AND CONSISTENT PRICES will be bettered every day.

Franklin streets. Professor John W. McKenzie will be on hand and it is expected that he will have a chorus of several hundred voices to direct.

The San Rafael Singing club, which numbers fifty singers, also well known vocalists of San Francisco, Alameda and Berkeley will probably take part. A short oration and the reading of the Declaration of Independence will be given in addition to the musical program.

The committee has obtained permission from John Charles Adams to use a portion of the Adams Point property in which to hold the exercises. A large platform will be erected for this purpose very shortly. The fireworks, which has been a large feature in past celebrations, will be cut out to a great extent. The literary and musical exercises will be held at 11 o'clock.

WEDDING CARDS.

Mr. and Mrs. Benson Griswold of Novedad, Jalisco, Mexico, have sent out cards announcing the marriage of their daughter, Mary Edith, to Edwin Emerson Jr. at the home of Mrs. Robert Louis Stevenson on Wednesday afternoon, May 16, 1906.

WILL RETURN.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Madden, with their charming daughter, Miss Merle, have been staying in Alameda since the fire, but will return this week to San Francisco, where they will occupy a cozy home near the park.

ENTERTAINS FRIENDS.

A very pleasant social gathering took place at the home of Mrs. Frank Barnett on Thursday, June 7. It was in honor of Miss Erie May, a popular and handsome belle of East Oakland, who is to be married to William Govan, a prominent searcher of records. He is associated with his uncle, Robert Leckie. Mr. Govan is to be congratulated as a fortunate young man. They will reside at their new home on East Oakland Heights upon their return from a trip through Southern California.

The decorations at the Barnett home were sweet peas and ferns. Those present to do honor to Miss May were the following: Mrs. Al Merritt, Mrs. Sunkie, Mrs. J. H. Morehouse, Mrs. A. Merle, Mrs. J. G. Quinn, Mrs. J. C. Rohan, Miss Nellie May, Mrs. M. B. de Camera, Miss Emma Appleton, Miss Daisy Cook, Mrs. Frank Barnett.

Mrs. Barnett will entertain a score of friends next Friday at her home, the guests including the members of a congenial card club. Among the players will be Mrs. Rupert Whitehead, Mrs. F. R. Chadwick, Mrs. George A. Scott, Mrs. W. Westphal, Mrs. W. H.

L. Hynes, Mrs. Frank Titus, Mrs. W. Kergan, Mrs. George Humphrey, Mrs. Scherline, Mrs. Rowe, Mrs. Fred Doraz, Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Shanklin, Mrs. A. A. Denison, Mrs. A. L. Leber.

PERSONALS.

The J. C. Sims are domiciled on this side of the bay and have Miss Blythe McDonald with them.

The following are at Byron Springs: From Oakland—E. C. C. Chatham, S. M. Togue, Irving Jones, Mrs. W. H. McDonald, J. R. Richardson, J. E. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Bernhard, Mrs. C. H. Shaw, Grant Hinton, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Clough.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Lissak and daughter are residing at 2030 San Jose avenue, Alameda.

E. M. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Vernon and Mrs. C. L. Clute are among the Oaklanders at Adams Springs.

HOME WEDDING.

One of the recent weddings of interest was that of Miss Hazel Perrean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Perrean, whose marriage to Roy Fletcher took place at the home of the bride's parents. The couple stood under a floral canopy to exchange their nuptial vows, Rev. E. R. Dille reading the marriage service.

Only relatives and close friends attended the pretty ceremony and the wedding breakfast which followed.

The groom is a young business man and the bride has a large circle of friends in this city, where the young couple will make their home.

Palpitation of the heart, nervousness, trembling, nervous headache, cold hands and feet, pain in the back, and other forms of weakness are relieved by Carter's Iron Pills, made specially for the blood, nerves and complexion.

WHAT'S

One man's poison is another man's meat. This holds good even with vegetarians. I remember a funny fish story I read in the Philippine. At the local hotelery at East Aurora. It was Friday. He asked for fish. The waitress returned with beef and reported, "The fish is all out." "God knows I asked for fish," the stranger said; but he ate his meat just the same. I love a good roast of beef, but for a light lunch I always go to Lehnhardt's.

TROOPS KEPT FROM PEOPLE

Not Allowed to Mix with Public for Fear Unrest Will Spread.

ODESSA, June 11.—Since the commencement of the repatriation of the troops which took part in the war with Japan, 152,000 men, including the Russian prisoners from Japan, have been landed here and distributed throughout the interior of the country. The most stringent precautions were observed during the whole period in order to prevent the slightest intercourse between the returning troops and the townspeople. In consequence of fears of mutinous demonstrations, as it was undeniable that the troops coming home were largely disaffected. The spirit of disaffection was even more noticeable among the officers than in the men. The former frankly expressed the opinion that if parliament can hold its own until spring it will be able to count upon the army to support its demands.

TERRORISTS MURDER TWO

They Are Still Keeping Up a War Against High Officials in Poland.

WARSAW, June 11.—The terrorists of Poland continue to wage a relentless war against state and municipal officials. Hardly a day elapses without an assassination. Last night the mayor of Siedlce, the chief of the governor's office and the secretary of the police board were walking in the streets of Siedlce when a band of terrorists, armed with revolvers, attacked them. The first two officials were mortally wounded and the third was seriously injured.

DEATH IN EAST OF A CATHOLIC BISHOP

MANCHESTER, N. H., June 11.—Right Rev. John B. Delaney, Roman Catholic bishop of the diocese of Manchester, died today at the Sacred Heart hospital in this city.

Come Up Where You Belong.

Perhaps you know why you fail in the plans for money, fame and position.

Some Don't.

Just why the brain does not produce practical money making results is a puzzle to many men.

Strong, healthy, natural brains can be made from food, and good brains can work keenly when they have their proper food.

Unsuccessful brains often come from improperly selected food.

A DISTINCT IMPROVEMENT in mental power will follow in a week or ten days, when the brain-building food is used twice a day.

There are well established and very clearly understood reasons for these sure results from the change in food. You can make Money, Position, Fame if you have the kind of Brain that works that way.

At LESS than Manufacturer's Price

Lucky we were in getting a snap purchase on a New York agent's line of Samples. He gave them to us less a big discount and allowed us the expressage which he would have to pay on them to return them to his factory. We give them to you at just what they cost us—which is far cheaper on account of the saving that it would to land them here ordinarily. Lucky are you if you are lucky enough to get one while they last. No stocks were left in San Francisco. There is big demand now and to people who wish to make every dollar count here's your chance.

"IT'S TOO SUDDEN" --BRYAN

Former Presidential Candidate on 1908 Race.

BERLIN, June 11.—"This is too sudden," said William J. Bryan, with a laugh, when he was told today of the adoption by recent state Democratic conventions of resolutions favoring his nomination for the presidency of the United States in 1908. "This is the first announcement of the news to me," Mr. Bryan continued. "I have been off the main caravan route for some time, and have been absorbed in what I have been seeing and doing."

Mr. Bryan had been moving so rapidly since he left Vienna on Friday that letters and telegrams for him did not reach him until today. As to the possibility of his nomination, he had little to say, declaring it is too early to speak of that question, but taking up the subject of the political requirements of the day, he said:

DEMOCRACY AND SOCIALISM.

"Before leaving home I tried to distinguish between democracy and what can properly be called socialism. Democracy recognizes competition as legitimate, and tries to protect the competitive principle from attack. Socialism sees competition as an evil to be eliminated by public ownership. While this distinction between democracy and socialism cannot be overlooked, the Democratic platform must be one of progress and reform and not merely of opposition to Republican methods or socialistic ideas."

BOOKS OPEN.

"I trust that public sentiment will require all parties to keep their books open so that hereafter no party will be under private obligations to shield corporate offenders."

Aluding to conditions in the meat industry, Mr. Bryan said:

"The meat trust is not different in character and methods from other trusts. The inevitable tendency of a private monopoly is to increase the price of product and to lower its quality. Why should anyone expect anything else from a trust than the lowering of quality when a monopoly is established? Observe, I have used the words private monopoly, not public. In a private monopoly a private interest is set up against those of the whole people. Quite a different principle comes into operation when the interest of all is alone in view."

ITINERARY.

Herman Ridder of the New York Staats Zeitung and Mr. Bryan had a long talk today on the political situation in the United States. Mr. Bryan will leave here for St. Petersburg tomorrow, and from there will visit Sweden and Norway. He will arrive in England early in July and will then visit France, Italy and Switzerland. He expects to sail on the steamship Princess Irene from Gibraltar on August 20 and to arrive in New York on August 29.

ARCHITECT ADMITTED TO PRACTICE.

After due examination, William A. Newman, a former student of architecture at the University of California, has just been admitted to practice by the state board of architecture, and is now receiving the congratulations of his friends.

Mr. Newman, during the past six years, has been connected with the construction and repair of United States government buildings in San Francisco, having received his appointment from the secretary of the treasury as superintendent of construction of United States public buildings over a year ago.

Mr. Newman received his early education here. He is a member of Live Oak Lodge, No. 61, F. and A. M., and Oakland Consistory of the Scottish Rite.

CURE SICK HEAD ACHE

Sick headache and relieve all the troubles incident to a bilious system, such as Dizziness, Nausea, Bloating, Distress after eating, Pain in the Side, etc. While the most remarkable success has been known in curing Headache, yet Carter's Little Liver Pills are equally valuable in Constipation, curing and purifying the system, and while they also correct all disorders of the stomach, stimulate the liver and regulate the bowels. Even if they cure.

As they would be almost priceless to those who suffer from this distressing complaint, but fortunately their goodness does not end here, and those who once try them will find these little pills valuable in so many ways that they will not be willing to do without them. But after all sick headache.

THE LONGWORTHS HAVE ARRIVED IN ENGLAND

MRS. NICHOLAS LONGWORTH.

Met in London by Ambassador Reid and Wife, Whose Guests They Will Be.

LONDON, June 11.—After a voyage which both declared to be the most pleasant in their experience, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth reached London early yesterday afternoon, having journeyed from Southampton, where they embarked from the American line steamer St. Louis in a beautifully appointed royal carriage attached to the London & Southwestern. The weather was ideal and the country traversed by the train on the short trip to London was looking its best so that their first impression of England, where they will spend the first fortnight of their European outing, was most favorable. Only a short stop was made in Southampton. The mayor of Southampton and the American consul there, Mr. Swain, were the first to greet the travelers on this soil.

On arriving in London Mr. and Mrs. Longworth were met by Ambassador Reid and the members of the embassy staff, Mr. and Mrs. Reid, Mr. and Mrs. Carter, wife and daughter of the secretary of the American embassy, and Mrs. Gibbons, wife of the naval attaché, while at the entrance to the station several hundred Americans living in London had gathered to welcome the couple. Mr. and Mrs. Longworth will be the guests of the ambassador and his wife at Dorchester house, while in London.

The afternoon was spent in resting. In the evening there was a family dinner which was attended by the members of the embassy staff. Today Mr. and Mrs. Longworth will be given an opportunity to see London, no engagement having been made for the day. In the evening they may visit the Alhambra with Mr. and Mrs. Reid for the first production of the new ballet "L'Amour," the music for which was written by Mrs. Thayer Ritchie, an American.

It has not yet been announced whether King Edward will entertain Mr. and Mrs. Longworth, but it is expected they will dine with him at Ascot Heath during Ascot week. Queen Alexandra being still in mourning for her father is not accepting any but court engagements, and therefore will not accompany King Edward to the dinner at Dorchester house Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Longworth thoroughly enjoyed the Atlantic voyage and the sports and amusements incident to the trip. The weather from land to land was splendid, the delay to the St. Louis being caused by bad coal and a light fog.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS OPEN IN MANILA.

MANILA, June 11.—The public schools opened today throughout the islands. It is estimated that half a million pupils attended, though the accommodations are limited to about 400,000.

Governor Ide dedicated the new high school at Lucena, province of Tayabas. He delivered a short address, advising the people to educate their children. He said that the future of the islands depends on the way the rising generation meets its responsibilities, and that education befitting them for the duties they will be called upon to assume.

EXPERIMENTING IN MAKING OF BUTTER

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Some extensive experiments in the making and storage of butter have recently been concluded by the dairy division of the bureau of animal industry, United States department of agriculture, in efforts to solve the difficulties encountered in the butter trade. A bulletin containing a report of the experiments has been issued. A conclusion is that light salting and low temperatures and the use of cream ripened at the creamery in a sweet condition give much the best results for storage butter.

QUEER FREAK OF BIG FIRE

Ice Factory Burns and Plant Keeps On Turning Out Congealed Water.

CHICAGO, June 11.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Hopkinsville, Ky., says:

"When the ruins of the ice factory, which, with three city squares was destroyed by fire last Thursday, were examined yesterday, it was found that 16,000 pounds of ice had been made during the progress of the flames. Just before the fire started $30 worth of ice, each with a capacity of fifty pounds of ice, were lowered into the tank of brine beneath the floor. An examination showed that each can contained a block of pure ice."

THE HEAVEN OF MANSIONS

That Such Exists Is Belief of Rev. Donald S. Mackay of New York.

NEW YORK, June 11.—Many members of the general synod of the Reformed Church of America, which is holding its one-hundredth meeting here, heard Dr. Donald Sage Mackay, the pastor of St. Nicholas church, and the president of the general synod, preach yesterday. He took his text from I Peter IV, 17: "For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God."

The doctor declared that any church fails to reach its high calling which puts more emphasis on its denomination than on the kingdom of God. At the same time he did not make light of denominational distinctions, and he said:

"The idea seems to have attracted some visionaries these days that it is going to be possible before long to get the various branches of the church together—the Presbyterians, Baptists, Methodists and all the rest—and to consolidate them in some wise religious trust—with headquarters somewhere in New Jersey. But it is a dream and I hope it will never be realized—even in heaven."

I prefer to think of heaven as described by the masters as a place of mansions—so many that there will be plenty of places for the excellent but unconverted saints with whom it is so difficult to get along in this life."

RAILROADS CITED TO HAVE HEARING

ST. LOUIS, June 11.—The hearing of evidence in the Missouri case proceedings against the Standard and Waters-Pierce oil companies was resumed here today, before Special Commissioner R. A. Anthony. Attorney General Hadley and two assistants will participate in the case and will also represent the state in the first test case under the railroad maximum freight rate law, which proceedings were today begun before Special Commissioner Scofield. Eighteen railroads have been cited to appear and the state will select one of these to make a test case.

WHEEL STOLEN.
BERKELEY, June 11.—Alfred Fennerty of 2114 Durant avenue, complained to the police that some one got away with his Chevrolet wheel, valued at $15. He was the last of the bicycle from the house and when he returned to get it the wheel and tire were gone.

CURTIS JETT CONFESSES

Notorious Kentuckian Said to Have Implicated More Persons.

LEXINGTON, Ky., June 11.—A special from Winchester, Ky., reports that Curtis Jett, now in jail awaiting his second trial on a charge of assassinating James Cockrell in Jackson three years ago, has made a full confession, telling of the assassinations of Dr. B. N. Cox, James Cockrell and James E. Marcum.

It is believed here that Jett has implicated persons not indicted in connection with the Breathitt case.

WANT FRIARS DRIVEN OUT

MANILA, June 11.—There was a demonstration of the people of Lucena province of Tayabas, against the Capuchin monastery last night. Governor Ide, who arrived at Lucena today, was met by a delegation of the populace, who presented a petition asking for the expulsion of three Capuchin friars from Saraya. The people reminded the governor of the promise of former executives to cause the withdrawal of friars from the islands, and declared that the promises of Americans were not kept. Governor Ide ordered that the friars be protected, and promised to consider the petition.
